

Opera Las Vegas Cancels Opera in the Underworld at the Underground House

Las Vegas, NV - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
February 14, 2019

Opera Las Vegas regrettably announces that Opera in the Underworld scheduled for March 23, 2019 is cancelled due to changes in the management of the Underground House, which is currently for sale.

For those who have already purchased tickets to Opera in the Underworld, a full refund will be processed electronically through Paypal. Please allow two weeks for repayment to your credit card account.

Since so many of our patrons and singers were looking forward to this event, the company will make every attempt to reschedule the program at a different venue in the future.

In the meantime, please be Opera Las Vegas' guest at Opera Legends in Black, a FREE concert saluting world famous singers and composers in celebration of African-American History Month at 2 pm on Sunday, February 24, in the West Las Vegas Library Theatre, 951 West Lake Mead Boulevard.

Bring a friend to this unique concert starring singers Sheronda McKee, Monica McCullough, Albert Rudolph Lee and Aaron Pendleton with pianist Katie Leung and narration by OLV General Director Jim Sohre.

For complete details on Opera Las Vegas, visit www.operlasvegas.com.
For media follow-up, contact Mimi Williams at 702/336-1938 - nvtigress@aol.com